Hanover, November 28. N. S. The Court is not yet returned from the Goere. His Electoral Highness had a Fall from his Horse in Hunting, and Duke Ernest is Indispos'd by a like Accident. The Prince Royal of Prussia went from thence on Saturday the 22d, with his Princess, in order to return to Berlin. We hear from Wolfenbuttel, that his Czarish Majesty had sent the Order of St. Andrew to Prince Lewis, second Son to that Duke; and it was believed that the Marriage would be soon concluded between the Princess of Wolfenbattel, his second Daughter, and his Czarish Majesty's Son. The Minister who came hither from the Court of Holstein, is returned to Gottorp. The Abbot Giardini is come hither from the Duke of Modena.

Brussels, December 1. N. S. The Advices we have here from Spain are only such as the French Letters of the 29th of November give us by the way of Vittoria. They tell us, that the Duke of Anjou remained still encamped on the 9th at Casa-Texada; but that it was given out that they designed to March in three or four Days. They were in great want of all Necessaries, and suffered extremely by the great and continual Rains. His Catholick Majesty's Army continued in the Neighbourhood of Aranjuez on the Tagus. There was a strong Garrison in Toledo, and a Detachment of Horse was posted at Madrid; so that it was believed the late Motions of our Troops were for the conveniency of Subsistence, and for the better Securing the important Post of Toledo. A Body of Portuguese have appeared near Elvas, and another Detachment of the Troops of that Nation have made themselves Masters of Alcannices and Sanabria in the Kingdom of Leon. We have Reports here, that a great Tumult has lately happened in the Frontier Provinces of France on this side, occasioned by the heavy Imposition of the tenth Penny. The raising of that Tax meets daily with greater Difficulties, and causes a general Murmuring and Discontent throughout the whole Kingdom; so that some are of Opinion the Court will at last be obliged to desist from executing that Edict with rigour, and find out some other Expedients to supply the pressing Necessities of their Affairs.

Hague, December 2. N. S. The Duke of Marlborough and the Prince of Savoy have since their Arrival had daily Conferences with the Great Pensionary, the Deputies for Foreign Affairs, and the Ministers of the Allies. They are concerting Measures for pushing the War with the utmost vigour on all sides, in order to bring the Common Enemy to the Terms of a safe and honourable Peace. The Matters which are under Consideration being of the highest importance, make the Duke of Marlborough's Presence necessary here for some time longer; but the Baron de Bothmar, Envoy-Extraordinary to her Britannick Majesty from the Elector of Hanover, having received Orders to hasten his departure for England, the Men of War which were sent to attend his Grace are ordered to Convoy that Minister thither in the William and Mary Yacht. Several British General Officers intend to make use of that opportunity, and go over with the same Convoy. Monsieur de Bothmar designs to go on Board to Morrow, and will sail with the first fair Wind. The Men of War having seen the Yachts safe into the Thames, are to return immediately to Helvoet-sluys, to Convoy the Duke of Marlborough, who hopes to be ready to imbark towards
